This intuitive interface offers access to 2,500 encyclopedia articles. Perfect for homework, projects, and satisfying natural curiosity, Universalis Junior is an easy-to-use and engaging tool that teaches research skills and makes learning fun.

COMPREHENSIVE COVERAGE OF SCHOOL SUBJECTS

Students can explore what they've covered in school and other topics of interest: historical figures and events, famous individuals and fictional heroes, cities and countries, plants and animals, science and technology, sports, and more.

BRIGHT, ENGAGING, AND STIMULATING

A lively interface and more than 3,100 photographs, maps, flags, charts, and images draw students in to the encyclopedia. Plus, "Do You Know" and the "Image of the Day" are fun ways to interest young learners.

VOCABULARY TOOLS

Vocabulary help is available from the Merriam-Webster's French-English dictionary.

"READ ALOUD" TECHNOLOGY

Simply click the "play" symbol next to any article paragraph to hear the words read aloud in French.
